Caffery, Jefferson (1886-1974)
Papers, 1902-1974

Jefferson Caffery was born in Lafayette, LA. His father, Charles D. Caffery, was a lawyer and mayor of Lafayette for several terms. Jefferson attended Southwestern Louisiana Institute (now the University of Louisiana at Lafayette) for one year, then graduated from Tulane University. He taught Chemistry and served as track coach at SLII for one year. He entered the Diplomatic Corps in 1911.

For biography see Dictionary of American Biography; Dictionary of Louisiana Biography; booklets by Phil Dur.
