Chester Isaac Broussard

Inducted on March 10, 2012

"Chester Isaac 'Pee Wee' Broussard' was born in Henderson, Louisiana on February 20, 1920 into a musical Cajun family. His father, Sosthène Broussard, played mandolin and clarinet as well as accordion, while his grandfather played accordion and fiddle. Two brothers played guitar: Jules played rhythm (and was a member of Pee Wee's Melody Boys not long after recording these sides), and Jim played 4-string guitar.

By the time he was nine years old, young Pee Wee used to go and sit in his neighbor's field and listen to them playing the accordion. He learned to play on his father's instrument and by the time he was twelve he was playing at local fais do-dos, where they would pass a hat at the end of the evening and then he would make $2 -$3 per night: "that was big money back then!," as he told Johnnie Allan (personal communication).

Ned Guilbeau, a DJ on a New Iberia radio station, arranged Pee Wee's first session at J.D. Miller's studio at the old M&S Electrical Shop on North Parkerson Street in Crowley, as he liked Pee Wee's playing. There were two sessions: the first in 1952 produced The Waltz that Carried Me to My Grave, as a tribute to his wife who had recently died, The Pee Wee Special, Chere Tu Tu, and Creole Stomp. The second session, which showed that the first two 78s must have sold well enough to please both Miller and Pee Wee, produced La Valse du Bayou Blanc and a tribute to Miller's little shop/studio, M&S Special. For the sessions Pee Wee's Melody Boys comprised himself on accordion, Kaiser Perez on fiddle, Walter Guidry on steel guitar, one Johnson on rhythm guitar, and Nathan Latiolais on drums.

Pee Wee Broussard continued to record, cutting both for George Khoury in Lake Charles and Carol Rachou in Lafayette, while he continued his day job as an automobile mechanic at Charlie Lamar's Mechanic Shop in Lafayette... Although he played the accordion on Miller's releases, he also played fiddle, steel and rhythm guitar, and upright bass.."

I was thrilled to see Pee Wee perform on fiddle with Aldus Roger at the Breaux Bridge Crawfish Festival some years ago. Truly some legendary musicians. I wish I knew more about them.

A native and resident of Abbeville, Ruby passed away peacefully at home surrounded by loved ones on Friday, June 13, 2008 at 5:20PM. Ruby was born to Gilbert and Dona Broussard in Abbeville, Louisiana on December 5, 1920, and lived a bold and vibrant life until the time came for her to move on. In her time on earth, she traveled the country, fished its waters and made her home in a peaceful corner of Abbeville. She was a woman of the land, who tended several gardens and selflessly shared her life and home with hundreds of animals. Ruby worked as a nurse at the Palms Hospital in Abbeville as a young woman, and spent her time as a caregiver not only to her family but to others in need as well. She was a teacher to her children, grandchildren, and to all who encountered her. She propagated unconditional love and laughter, and enriched the lives of countless others. Her home was one of acceptance and enjoyment, and she spread her "joie de vivre" to those she met. As the matriarch of a large and tight knit family, she was an unpredictable and refreshing woman. She conformed to no molds, and celebrated life as her genuine self. Ruby was preceded in death by her parents, Gilbert and Dona Broussard; two brothers, James Ray and Dudley; father of her children Wallace Guilbeaux; and her beloved husband, Wallace Conner. Ruby is survived by two sisters, Ora Landry and Annie Bell Parker; four children, Prentice James Guilbeaux, Helen Ann Broussard, Gloria Marie Bradberry and her husband Thomas, and Betty Ann Guilbeaux; twelve grandchildren; and nineteen great grandchildren
