Bonnie died peacefully at Maison du Monde Nursing home on Sunday, August 30th, 2009. Internment will be at the new St. Mary Magdalen Cemetery, located in back of Vermilion Catholic High School.

Bonnie was born February 1, 1940 in Gross Tete, Louisiana. She was the daughter of Geoffrey and Johnnie Bell Richard, who predeceased her.

As a resident of New Orleans, her education included Academy of Holy Angels in New Orleans, and finally Southwestern Louisiana Institute in Lafayette.

Bonnie is survived by her loving husband of 50 years, former mayor of Abbeville, R. Brady Broussard, sons R. Brady Broussard Jr. and his wife Reba, D. Delany Broussard and his wife Carla, Lance R. Broussard and his wife Alecia, Scott R. Broussard and his wife Julie, and her daughter Darby Champagne and husband Elton. At the time of her death, Bonnie had 12 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Anyone who knew Bonnie, immediately found out what a rapid pace she kept at all times. Bonnie and a partner started Jack and Jill Nursery School, in her home. She also taught at Mr. Carmel Elementary in Abbeville. She was a member of a local prayer group of dear friends for more than 25 years. Bonnie was active in scouting for her children, and always easy to find at sporting events of her children and grandchildren.

Bonnie often traveled to support her favorite organizations, including many trips to Washington DC in support of Right to Life marches. She was a former president of "Abbeville Right to Life". She introduced Nancy Reagan's "Just Say No" program to Vermilion Parish and also represented this program at international conferences in Russia. She was a participant in President Bill Clinton's National Drug Control Strategy, intent on strengthening communities' response to drugs and crime.

She started "Red Ribbon Week" in the City of Abbeville and organized the "I love Abbeville Drug Free" program. She was appointed by the Governor of the State of Louisiana to the "Louisiana Drug Control and Violent Crime Board", and at the time she was the only woman on the board. She was also Vice President of "Extra Mile", working with the State of Louisiana Department of Hospitals.

In a span of time that exceeded the 16 years where she served as First Lady of Abbeville, Bonnie was a board member of Abbeville-Vermilion Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Greater Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, a board member of "Louisiana Alliance to Prevent Underage Drinking", a former board member of the "Teen Pregnancy Board", and former board member of "Smoke Free Louisiana".

Bonnie could often be found in the halls of the state capital, lobbying legislators and governors for the benefit to Vermilion parish children. In her capacity; as president of "Vermilion Takes A Stand" and as the former executive director of "Louisiana Takes A Stand", Bonnie influenced bills that became law and will give positive influence to Louisiana's future generations. Upon retirement, Bonnie enjoyed her time at antique auctions and sales, garage sales, watching nostalgic movies, traveling, and prayer.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The Louisiana Chapter of the Alzheimer Association (<http://www.alz.org/louisiana/>), or Vermilion Catholic High School (425 Park Avenue, Abbeville, LA 70510), or Mt. Carmel Elementary (405 Park Avenue, Abbeville, LA 70510).

Deacon Patrick Broussard, of Lafayette, will serve beside Pope Francis during Saturday's Easter Vigil at the Vatican.

Broussard, 29, said his name was drawn out of a hat for the honor of serving as one of three principle deacons to the pope during the Mass, which will be broadcast worldwide.

"I am obviously very excited about the opportunity to serve with the Holy Father," Broussard said in an email from Rome. "I am, however, a little nervous because of the attention the event draws — and because the working language will be Italian."

Each year, the deacons for the Easter Vigil are chosen from the North American College in Rome, where Broussard has studied for the past four years.

As the deacon of the altar, Broussard said he will assist the pope with the Eucharist. Another deacon will read from the chosen texts and a third will sing the Easter proclamation. Broussard said eight other deacons will help distribute Holy Communion.
