FOREWORD

In compiling this work I have received the support of many people, and without the support they provided, this project would not have happened. I would give special thanks to Exodie Broussard Vincent, whose "barrel full" of Broussard, Vincent, and Trahan notes assisted in tying together many unknown persons, and the written history she documented in longhand notes would in itself be a best seller in book stores.

I thank Loubert Trahan and son David who were always there when I needed them, and Mike Richard and the expertise he brings in computer skills.

I would thank Floyd Weber the support he provided, and notes and books he passed on to me for research. I would thank his lovely wife Bea also, for permitting him the time to help me.

I would thank the assistance of the late Errol Brent Broussard, who assisted my cemetery research, and courthouse records searches.

The work of Milton Rieder, Pearl Segura, Janet Jehn, Betty Porchiou, Father Donald Hebert, Stephen White, Bona Arsenault, Father Clarence D'Entremont (he answered many of my early questions, and was a pleasure to talk to and to be around).

The Archivists, Betty Mier, Una Daigle, and Mattie Primeau, and all those wonderful ladies at the many churches I called or visited for help. Without their support and time, I would still be at square one.

Donald Boudreaux, for computer records assistance, Shirley Leblanc Thibodeaux for her research assistance to this project, without them, I could not have finished this work.

While this collection contains over 200,000 names (over 64,000 families), and is long, it is like catching water in your hands, although you are able to catch some, most eludes you. As you read and search this compact disc (cd)/Flash Drive you will note that there are many individuals listed that have little information with them. I could only list that information that was found or given to me.

Remember, the more information we put in records, the easier it will be for all those who will research in the future.

Lastly, I would state that this work is a history and intended to assist people in locating their families, past and present. It may contain typographical errors; however, nothing is entered on this compact disc (CD) or USB Flash Drive is intended to be hurtful or demeaning. The information contained in this work was given to me without hesitation, and no restrictions were placed upon the use of the information. I would also encourage all of you with children to share your family history with them. A day will come when there will be no one left who knows any of your history, unless you share it now.

The Photo Album consists of many pages of photographs. The photos were either donated for use in CD/ Flash Drive Photo Album, or were acquired from various newspaper obituaries and public notices and records. I have used the photos as a source for future generations seeking the knowledge of their ancestor, including image of ancestors.
