Paul and Mary Trahan started what would one day become Ben & Bill's Chocolate Emporium in 1956. With an aisle devoted to their handmade candies and chocolates in Ben Franklin's Store in Vineyard Haven, Massachusetts, Trahan's Candies embarked on a long journey of growth and development.

In 1958, the Trahans opened their very own retail shop, and quickly found quite a demand for their quality products. They branched out to Falmouth and Hyannis, Massachusetts where they operated in the summers, and opened locations in Palm Beach and West Palm Beach, Florida during the winter months. In those days, the shops produced strictly homemade candy and chocolates.

Expansion continued and more locations came and went, leading up to the opening of a shop in Bar Harbor, Maine. Shortly thereafter, in 1983 the shops added another dimension to their product line, introducing a line of ice cream. The Bar Harbor store began with sixteen flavors, and added more as demand increased.

In 1988, after thirty-two years of operating Trahan's Candies, Paul and Mary sold the business to their nephews, Benjamin and William Coggins, at which point the business became Ben & Bill's Chocolate Emporium as it is today. In 1991 another location was added, in Northampton, Massachusetts, followed by the fourth extant shop in Oak Bluffs on Martha's Vineyard in 1994, in the neighboring town where the business began almost forty years before.

Today, Ben & Bill's continues to offer quality candies and chocolates made with the original recipes, and numerous flavors of ice cream - 64 hard-serve flavors plus 12 of gelato in the Bar Harbor store alone.

We deeply appreciate your continued patronage - it makes the story of this small, unique New England, family owned business, a continually successful one.

Emile a Alphonse peacefully passed away in his sleep at age 89 in Yarmouth Regional Hospital after a long battle with cancer on January 2, 2008. He was surrounded by his family and his devoted wife, Bertha. Born October 28, 1918, he was the 12th child of Alphonse and Marcelline (TRAHAN). His birth coincided with the Great Spanish Flu, reason for which he lived with his godmother, Adèle, in Concession until he was two years old. Raised among the Bangor sawmills, he spent his life in the woods, between his house and his camp at Clear Water Lake. During many years, he was owner-operator of a logging truck. Often in the woods or on the lakes, Emile was a hunter and a fisherman, usually in the company of his dogs. He knew the lines of many pieces of land and the back roads of the Bangor area. Emile was always passionate about the history of his village and told and wrote many memories during his life. We could often find him working on his tractor or his many boats. During the Second World War, Emile volunteered to join the army as a Royal Canadian Engineer in Petawawa. On February 10, 1947, he wed the woman who would be by his side during nearly 61 years, Bertha (COMEAU) COMEAU. Emile was then owner-operator of a salt truck in the municipality of Clare and worked in the machine shop at Comeau Sea Foods. Afterwards, he started his own water delivery business, Emile Comeau Water Service, that he sold to his brother-in-law when he retired. Emile spent his life surrounded by his family and children, David, Meteghan; Denise (Gilles DESAUTELS), Jasmine (Clarence MAILLET) and Ronald (Cathy), all of Bangor; Alice (Claude SAULNIER) and Annette (Michel DEVEAU) of Saulnierville Station. He also leaves behind many grandchildren, Nathalie (COMEAU), Patrick and Yannick Desautels, Tommy and Melissa MAILLET, Stephanie and Simon ROBICHEAU and Janice DEVEAU; great-grandchildren, Alexis and Adèle COMEAU. Emile leaves his brother, Isaac, Bangor; sisters, Eva, Salmon River, formerly of Saulnierville, and Rosalie, Church Point. He was predeceased by infant son, Ronald Joseph and by his brothers and sisters, Joseph, Georges, Arcade, Gustave, Prescille, Zita, Camille, Elie, Ben, Jeanne and Bernard. Cremation has taken place under the direction of Meteghan Funeral Service. As requested by the family, there will be no visitation. A funeral mass will be held Saturday, January 5, in Sacred Heart Church, Saulnierville, at 11 a.m., officiated by Rev. Paul Belliveau. The family wishes to sincerely thank Dr. Giselle Dugas, the VON nurses and the staff of the 4th floor of Yarmouth Regional Hospital for their compassionate care during Emile's illness.
