He died on 19 Apr 2000 at the age of 62 in BAYOU BLUE, LA. On September 27, 1993, Huey was in a very serious accident. He was working for Mallard Bay Drilling on the drilling rig Mallard #55. The rig was over three miles offshore near Main Pass, off the mouth of the Mississippi River. Just as they got the rig on location to begin drilling for oil, an unexpected cold front came through. There were strong North winds with waves 10 to 12 feet high. One of the two supply barges tied to the drilling rig came loose. The wind and waves caused the barges to hit the drilling rig and collide with each other. While trying to secure the barges, a man was washed overboard. Huey was able to grab the man, who was still in the water. While pulling the man out of the water, another wave hit the barges and washed Huey overboard too. Huey was pulled under the barges by the wave action. The other workers rushed to help Huey and the other man when they saw what was happening. They were able to reach Huey just as Huey's life preserver helped him to the surface. While pulling Huey out of the water, the barges hit again. Huey's legs were crushed between the barges.

Huey's right leg had to be amputated below the knee. On the left leg, the doctors had to do a muscle graft (they took a muscle from Huey's back), skin graft and placed a rod from knee to ankle to help the bone to heal. It took about a year before Huey was able to walk again with the aid of a prosthesis (an artificial leg). Huey endured 12 surgeries that year and was very fortunate to have survived. God was surely taking care of him.

Terry A. Ledet, the man Huey tried to save, was crushed between the two barges. He is buried at St Francis de Sales Cemetery #2 in Houma Louisiana.

Mr T.J. Lafluer Sr. was the first man to reach Huey. He ruptured his abdominal wall while helping to pull Huey out of the water. It took 48 stitches to repair the abdominal wall. Huey was 6'1" tall and weighed 225 pounds. Black (T.J.'s nickname) was smaller being 5'10" and weighing 170 pounds.

Ivy Terrebonne, who was also helping to pull Huey out of the water, injured his back and had to have surgery.

Huey may have had an artificial leg, but it did not stop him from doing anything he set his mind to. If the doctors told him not to do something, he would try just to see if he could do it. He would not accept the he couldn't, and with determination, would prove that he could.

The shipyard was shut down as a cost savings measure in 1973 so they moved to Camarillo, California where Paul worked for the Naval Surface Warfare Center in Port Hueneme. They had two more sons, Benjamin and Aaron, in Camarillo.

Paul traveled over 1,000,000 air miles while working for the government. He had to take a trip to St Louis, Missouri while Dorothy was supposed to stay rested during her last pregnancy. So Paul took Benjamin back to St Louis to stay with Benjamin's great grandmother for a week in November 1974. The return flight was delayed a long time on the runway by snow flurries during which time free liquor was offered to keep the passengers happy. The passengers delighted in giving Benjamin their small empty liquor bottles from which he drank the last few drops. Benjamin slept most of the way home and had a collection of about 20 small liquor bottles to remind him of the trip.

The following year Paul took the entire family back to great grandma Rolf's house in St Louis during another business trip. Dorothy's Uncle Lou took Dorothy and her children in his cab to visit many places she remembered of her childhood during the one week visit.

Paul took his family on many vacations throughout California and the Washington DC area. He was active with all three sons in Indian Guides in which he was the local nation Chief for two years. Paul also started and maintained a family recycling business for three years in which the boys learned how to work together as employees to earn their spending money.

Paul retired from the Federal Government in January 2003 after 35+ years of federal government service. Paul and Dorothy spent six months renting an apartment in New Orleans, from March through September 2003, where they spent three weeks of every month on a consulting job. This gave Paul an opportunity to visit his cousins in Houma, Louisiana where his father was born, and to complete his Trahan genealogy generation by generation back to France on his father's side of the family. Paul's three sons are married and have together provided eight grandchildren. Their sons live near Paul and Dorothy in the Camarillo, California area. Vermilion Parish native Broussard wins 2nd title for STM Vermilion Today.Com 2 years ago | 1671 views | 0 | 14 | | Danny Broussard, a Meaux High graduate, stands by the two state basketball trophies his STM basketball teams have won. The first one (right) was in 1986 and last week his team won another trophy (left).slideshow LAFAYETTE — St. Thomas More's 2013 Class 4A State Basketball title, as is the case with its 1986 championship, has roots in Vermilion Parish.

Those roots, of course, come from the Cougars head coach Danny Broussard, a Leroy native. The Cougars helped Broussard capture his second title last Friday with a victory over Northside.

"I never forget where I came from," Broussard said Tuesday morning. "I'm a Vermilion Parish boy.

"I learned a lot of basketball in Vermilion Parish."

Broussard remembers fondly some of the parish's hoops history, including Joe Dell Duhon.

"He might be the greatest basketball player to come out of Vermilion Parish," Broussard said. "I know some might dispute that, but if there is a Top-10 list, Joe Dell is on that list.

"Joe Dell coached me in seventh and eighth grade and that is kind where it started."

Broussard, who graduated from Meaux High School in '77, played for his brother Rickey Broussard, himself a former Meaux High player, for his first two years of high school. Broussard finished his junior and senior years playing for coach Frank Hardy.

"I learned a lot from them," Broussard said. "Rickey, who I learned about 90 percent of what I know about basketball from, was a hard-nosed guy, a disciplinarian. Coach Hardy was a players' coach. He kind of let us do our thing. He would let us call timeouts if we felt one was needed. I feel really blessed to have that Vermilion Parish tie because Meaux and Maurice were a hotbed for basketball.

"I'm proud to be from there and that I got my initial training there."

Vermilion Parish taught Broussard much more than basketball, though. That is namely what he learned from his parents Ervy and Florbra Broussard, whose son Brent won a state baseball title at North Vermilion.

“We were born and raised in the little community of Leroy,” Broussard said proudly. “I learned a lot from my parents. It’s funny, though, because my dad never played a lick of sports in his life. At a young age he helped his parents farm cotton.

“He was always, always so supportive of us playing sports.”

Broussard remembers helping his father build a fence during one basketball season. The young Broussard said he was in that process for the long haul.

“We were struggling and digging holes,” Broussard said. “My dad stops and looks at his watch. He says, ‘Don’t you have practice?’ I told him I could miss it to finish helping him. I knew he needed my help, I could tell. He told me to go clean up and go to practice.

“That’s the kind of guy he was. He wanted us to do the right things.”

Ervy Broussard passed away in October of 1985. Danny Broussard won his first state title later that season.

“That always hit me hard,” Broussard said of winning his first title a few months after losing his father. “He was a carpenter. His last job was remodeling St. John’s Cathedral. He would always brag to his co-workers and tell them that his son was going to win a state championship one day. I took it hard that he wasn’t there when I got it. I know he was up there watching me.

“Now 27 years later I got my second one and I know he is up there smiling.”

Broussard has two state basketball titles, but it was baseball that brought him his first taste of winning it all.

“My first state title in anything was coaching Babe Ruth baseball in 1980 in Abbeville,” Broussard said. “I coached with Tommy Picard, Tommy Frederick and Rickey Cormier. I was really proud of that. I played Babe Ruth in Abbeville all the way through growing up. We would always lose to New Orleans. Sure enough that’s who we beat.

“That was my first state championship ever and it was exciting.”

Broussard also credits Picard for contributions to his coaching style.

“He demanded a lot of his players,” Broussard said. “At the same time he knew how to get players to play for him. He would always take his teams to Houston to watch an Astros game after the season was over. I learned a lot from him about how to treat kids.

“If you treat them right they will play hard for you.”

That has worked in Broussard’s 30 years at STM. That time includes 827 wins, two state titles, 16 district winners, three state runners-up and eight Top 28 appearances. Creating those results does not come without hard work.

“That’s caused me to spend time away from my family,” Broussard said.

There is a silver lining to that, however. Broussard’s wife, Dena Landry Broussard of Abbeville, and their children, Lacey, 27, Paige, 24, and Chase, 19, have been there through all of it. In fact, Chase played basketball for his father.

“They’re one of the most supportive families I have ever seen,” Broussard said. “My family comes to the games and they will continue to give their support.

As far as Broussard is concerned, there will be many years to come to continue that support.

“Everybody asks me when I think I will retire,” Broussard said. “I have always been a goal setter. When I first got here I set a goal to win 500 games. When 500 passed I set a goal of 1,000. I’m not there yet. I want to try to stick around to see that. I don’t think I could sit around and do nothing, anyway.

“I’ve still got the enthusiasm and I’ve still got the fire.

It’s a fire that started years ago in Vermilion Parish.

“I’m proud of Vermilion Parish,” Broussard said. “I’m proud of what Kim Guidry has done at Vermilion Catholic. We started about the same time and I’m glad that we both got our second title in the same year. I’m thankful to all the coaches from Vermilion Parish who helped me along the way.

On Tuesday, March 15, 2022, Lenore Dorothy Parkerson Voorhies entered into eternal rest at the age of 91. Having been raised by a Jewish mother and an Episcopalian father, she was finally received into the Catholic Church with the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist in 2017. Her life was one of service to others: bringing joy to many hearts through countless holiday meals, birthday parties, and all sorts of celebrations. Always one to listen, encourage, and see the positive in everyone, she was a friend to all.

Having been born and raised as an only child in New Jersey, then New York, then her beloved Lafayette, Louisiana, her goal in life was to have a larger family. She was queen of Children's Mardi Gras and Quota Ball. She graduated from Lafayette High School and then obtained an education degree at S.L.I., which she ultimately used with her children after they came home from school. A young lawyer, Bennett Joachim Voorhies, Jr., saw her in the window at Lafayette Children's Library where she first worked. It was love at first sight. After a short engagement they were married in 1951. She volunteered as a Girl Scout Troop leader, reading coach at Cathedral-Carmel Elementary School, and later as a helper at United Christian Outreach.

Thomas Parkerson Voorhies, and Claire Voorhies Marikar; five grandchildren: Matthew Spizale (Kylie), Lauren Spizale Maniscalco (Marc), Hamsa Marikar (Kailee), Amaan Marikar (girlfriend Laura Cardona), and Nasreen Marikar; and four great-grandchildren: Gioacchino Spizale, Mia and Samuel Maniscalco, and Sabrina Marikar. She is survived by all of the above descendants and her nephew, nieces and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 59 years, Ben; her parents Thomas Parkerson, Sr. and Mae Singer Parkerson; her half-brother Thomas Parkerson, Jr.; and her son-in-law Sabry Marikar.

Thanks to all her doctors: Juan Perez, Mark Saad, and Agostino Ingraldi; Mia Rabalais, N.P.; her sitters: Linda Bernard, Mary Ryan, and Patty Cormier; Acadian Hospice and various home health groups.
