Liz Landry – Chairman, USL Centennial Celebration Committee: The Academic Showcase in general terms is -- it's our pre-Centennial salute to the evolution of academics at the University.

Throughout this year, 98/99, each college or academic area of the University is assigned a month, at which time they can put on all types of activities to showcase their college.

The College of Education Showcase I'm particularly impressed with because I think that Dr. Dugas and all of the committee have done a wonderful job of accomplishing the goals we set for Academic Showcase.

One of the things we wanted to make sure that we did was bring this Centennial celebration and the Academic Showcase into the community.

The College of Ed has done a wonderful job of that with the Spirit Coordinators Network.

I'm so impressed by the numbers of people out there in the field, out there in the schools who are getting involved and who have gotten involved, and who have promoted the University in their own areas.
