21st Annual Roy Theriot Dejeuner de Boucherie Acadienne

Laissez le bon temps rouler! The twenty-first annual Roy Theriot Dejeuner de Boucherie Acadienne, featuring such Cajun delights as boudin, cracklings, sausage, cornbread, syrup, milk and coffee, will be held Monday, May 18, at 8 a.m. at Independence Hall next to the Royale Rouge Hotel, Baton Rouge.

1981 Marks the final celebration of the annual event in Baton Rouge. Proceeds from the Breakfast will be used to establish a Roy Theriot Endowment Fund for the study of French.

The Breakfast will be dedicated this year to Mrs. Roy Theriot of Abbeville, widow of the late Roy Theriot, and to Mr. Jack Heimindinger of Port Allen, one of his former colleagues.

Dr. Armand Chartier will be the guest speaker at the Breakfast. Dr. Chartier is Honor Professor of French studies at the University of Rhode Island and President of the Franco-American Society.

Reigning over the Breakfast as King and Queen will be the Honorable J. Kelly Nix, Superintendent of Education for the State of Louisiana, and Mrs. Alice Goules McCaslin of St. Martinville, a retired schoolteacher and former President of France-Amrique.

In the true Cajun fashion, a Fais Do-Do will be held the evening before the Breakfast, Sunday, May 17, from 8 p.m. to midnight. Music will be provided by the Joel Sonnier Band of Rayne.

Room reservations may be made by contacting the Royale Rouge Hotel, 1575 Riverside North, Baton Rouge, La. 70802, telephone (504) 387-4444. For further information, call Sam Theriot, Cajun Breakfast Chairman, in Abbeville at (318) 893-5053.
