At the request of James Domengeaux, Chairman of the Council for the Development of French in Louisiana (C.O.D.O.F.I.L.), and authorities in the State Department of Education, 70 Louisiana teachers of French have been invited by the French Government to spend six weeks in France from July 1 to Aug. 12.

The participants will take courses for four weeks at different centers specializing in perfecting methodology of teaching French. Afterwards, they will visit several areas of France for two weeks under the auspices of the “Office du Tourisme Universitaire” (Travel Office for Universities and Schools).

The teachers who will be dispersed to four different centers—Angers, Tours, Paris, and Grenoble—according to their special needs, will be accompanied by M. Baradat, A. Delsol and Miss A. Bulko, French Educational Consultants in Louisiana, who will also be in charge of these courses prepared by the French Cultural Services. The group leaves Tuesday.

This program which was instituted to help the teachers familiarize themselves with new methods of teaching French as a second language as well as to have a better understanding of the French civilization and way of life and to improve their knowledge of the French culture is a part of the plan of C.O.D.O.F.I.L. to develop the teaching of French in Louisiana.
