WASHINGTON — The office of the comptroller of the currency is studying an application for the proposed establishment of a new bank at Abbeville, La., that would be known as the Louisiana National Bank and Trust Company.

The proposed bank would have a capital of $500,000. Charles Arthur Patout of Lafayette, La., is the spokesman for the group of organizers, most of whom are Abbeville citizens. The application was filed with Comptroller of the Currency James Saxon on June 23.

In addition to Patout, the organizers include Robert C. Hollier, Charles E. Dill, Dr. Perry G. Sudduth, Lloyd P. Broussard, Young A. Broussard, Emmett P. Putnam, III, Leo-
