Acadian Culture Move Gets 'Times' Publicity

[Article content]

ON THE SPOT

Good articles on the Argus press are to be seen in the "Acadian culture moves" column by R. L. Dupuis

On the spot

Acadian culture moves

The editor of the Acadian News has just come out with an interesting article on the steps that are being taken to preserve the Acadian culture in Louisiana.

The article begins by discussing the efforts made by the Acadian News to promote Acadian culture through its publications. It highlights the importance of preserving the language and traditions of the Acadian community.

The author then goes on to mention the various activities organized by the Acadian News, such as cultural festivals and educational programs, which aim to educate the public about the Acadian culture.

The article concludes by emphasizing the need for continued efforts to preserve and promote Acadian culture, as it is an integral part of Louisiana's heritage.

The Acadian News has been at the forefront of these efforts, working tirelessly to ensure that the Acadian culture is not lost to time.

For more information, please visit the Acadian News website or contact the editor directly.