John Paul II: Maybe next August?

On August 25, there was a ceremony in Lafayette, Louisiana, USA. There were a lot more people in the church and in Louisiana, France, than in Louisiana, USA. It is estimated that 100,000 of the French-speaking population of the US were present. The ceremony was for the canonization of the late Pope John Paul II.

In Lafayette, about 100 people attended a "Francophone Language Program" event, held August 25 and attended by the Bishop of Lafayette, Louisiana, USA. The event was to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the Francophone Language Program. The event included a performance of the French national anthem and a speech by the Bishop.

Alain Lamontagne en tournée en Louisiane

Microphones pour la bouche et... ses pieds! Alain s'exprime sur sa "musique à bouche". Pour lui, la "musique à bouche" n'est pas que du bruit, mais une façon de communiquer, aussi musical et émouvant que la parole.

Trouver des corps modernes, il n'est pas pour lui d'apporter de simples compositions tout autant que les adaptations et interprétations de nouvelles et de sonorités. ou des célébrations, des opéras, et des musiques de plages.

Parallèle avec le Cospul, ces ses spécialités qui sont grandement appréciées. Saint-Paul est invité à faire connaître la musique de ce grand artiste.

Plus de l'information sur les spectacles, n'hésitez pas à contacter la délégation à Lafayette, (337) 233-8000.

Alain Lamontagne a été choisi par le gouvernement du Québec pour représenter le festival de musique Acadienne à Lafayette le mois de septembre. Lamontagne, accompagné d'autres artistes, se produira également sur le campus de l'Université de Saint-Paul. Pour ce spectacle, au port St. Jean Baptiste à Krotchikénck. Allons à Lafayette pour les Festivals Acadiciens

A weekend full of music, crafts, and lots of fun is around the corner. The annual Festivals Acadiciens will be held September 17-18 in Lafayette.

The Festivals Acadiciens is unique combination of several Festivals, including the Nautisme de Lafayette, the Cajun Music Festival, the Cajun Fair and Crafts Show, the Acadiana Fair and Trade Show, and the Festival Accadien at Acadian Village and the University of Louisiana Center (formerly the Old Center). These festivities will be spread throughout the city.

This year there will be almost 20 exhibits, paintings, sculptures, photographs, and crafts from many communities such as Opelousas, Lafayette, and other surrounding areas.

The Nautisme de Lafayette festival will be held on the grounds of the University of Acadiana and the Louisiana Center. This festival includes water-based events such as water skiing, fishing, boating, and other water activities.

The Cajun Music Festival will be held on the campus of the University of Lafayette and will feature various bands and musicians from the region.

The Cajun Fair and Crafts Show, sponsored by the Acadiana Foundation, will take place at Blakey College in Lafayette.

The Acadian Fair and Trade Show, sponsored by the Acadiana Foundation, will take place at Blakey College in Lafayette.

The Festival de Musique Acadienne will be held on Saturday, September 17.

Echos des Châlîtres...

Alain Lamontagne, also known as the festival coordinator, will be holding a general meeting and food tasting event.

On Sept. 19, a "Wine Tasting" will be held at the Lake Charles Chamber of Commerce.

In addition, the festival will feature a parade and a "Wine and Cheese" event.

More than 150 enthusiasts were on hand to celebrate "LA FÊTE ACADIE" organized by the New Basin Châlîtres members in honor of the 40th anniversary of the Acadian Festival.

The event was highlighted by a performance by foreign French musicians who added to the festive atmosphere.

Brussels is full of surprises, it's hard to know where to start. Start in the center, in the oldest district, the bar district, and you will be amazed. The best places to start are:
