The makers of "The Life You Can Save" and "Twenty-One" present another exciting musical spectacle at the USL recital hall.
Special event at the university that has been annually celebrated since the Province of Quebec, a land of French speakers, was attained in 1867.
The day was marked by the creation of Acadie, the name given to the French-speaking people.

At the Governor's residence Annette tested the ability of her harp in a touching performance.

Annette's performance moved the crowd to tears and left them wondering if she was real or imaginary.

Annette's ability to play the harmonious notes of the harp was truly remarkable.

GREETINGS

The celebration was followed by a lavish buffet.

The guests
could be heard:

"It's a
time of renewal and growth for Acadian,
people.
"The people here are proud of their heritage and culture.
"We are proud of our history and our traditions.
"This is a day to reflect on our past
and look forward to our future.
"Acadian
culture will never die.
"Thank
you for attending.
