Acadian Heritage Potential Emphasized At B.R. Meet

By Lafayette Speaker

Acadian Heritage today, it will be pointed out by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.

As a matter of fact, the dominant cultural influence, the French influence, in south Louisiana is that of the Acadians. If you hear French in Acadiana today, it will be spoken by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.

As a matter of fact, the dominant cultural influence, the French influence, in south Louisiana is that of the Acadians. If you hear French in Acadiana today, it will be spoken by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.

As a matter of fact, the dominant cultural influence, the French influence, in south Louisiana is that of the Acadians. If you hear French in Acadiana today, it will be spoken by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.

As a matter of fact, the dominant cultural influence, the French influence, in south Louisiana is that of the Acadians. If you hear French in Acadiana today, it will be spoken by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.

As a matter of fact, the dominant cultural influence, the French influence, in south Louisiana is that of the Acadians. If you hear French in Acadiana today, it will be spoken by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.

As a matter of fact, the dominant cultural influence, the French influence, in south Louisiana is that of the Acadians. If you hear French in Acadiana today, it will be spoken by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.

As a matter of fact, the dominant cultural influence, the French influence, in south Louisiana is that of the Acadians. If you hear French in Acadiana today, it will be spoken by a person who is either Acadian or who has become Acadian, you don't hear Spanish in New Orleans - you hear Acadian French.

He pointed out that there are more Acadians in Louisiana than in the entire Acadian part of Canada, more than one million people, speaking Acadian French, a unique, distinct version of the Acadian French which is spoken in the Acadianas.