Acadian-Inspired Art Exhibit Set

An Acadian-inspired exhibit of art by the Hollander-born artist, Hendrick W. Vanderwall, will be presented Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. in Marymoe Hall on the Loyola university campus.

The exhibit is sponsored by the Canadian Club of New Orleans and is open to the public with no admission charge, according to Mrs. Calvin Caudell, general chairman for New Orleans of the Acadian bicentennial celebration.

On exhibit will be paintings of the St. Martinville and Bayou Teche areas, Louisiana plantation homes, Nova Scotia and episodes in the life of Evangeline, as well as a number of documents.

A special ceremony will be held at the exhibit site Saturday at 2 p.m., at which Vanderwall will be presented by E. L. Hicherman, consul-general of The Netherlands. Also on the program will be Mrs. J. A. McIver, vice-president of the Canadian Club; and A. A. Carter, vice-consul of Canada.
