Acadian Music, Talent Competitions

To Be With Mardi Gras Celebrations

The Acadian Folk Foundation is announcing through its president, Paul Tate, of Lafayette, that Acadian Music and Talent Competitions would be sponsored in connection with the Mardi Gras Celebrations at Mamou, Church Point and Opelousas.

The Louisiana Folk Foundation is endorsed by the Newport Folk Foundation and the Louisiana Fisheries Society.

Cash prizes, up to $25, will be made available to each competition to be awarded to contestants.

Hale Company, Inc. and Tate's Wharf, a member of the board of directors of the Louisiana Folk Foundation, is enabling the purposes of the organization, stipulating that it is designed to preserve, revive, interpret and perpetuate the traditions and culture of the Acadians. Those who wish to participate in the competitions that Mamou, Church Point, and Mrs. Wm. Maw, Westwego, and Mrs. J. G. Brown, Opelousas, are sponsoring, should contact these chairmen at the earliest convenience and be prepared to participate in the competition.
