HAS SIX AUTHENTIC HOMES ON GROUNDS

Acadian Village Officially Opened July 14, 1976

By MARIO MAMALAKIS
Special Features Writer

Acadian Village is the oldest neighborhood in the Youngsville area to have been continuously occupied by members of the same family. Estimates are that the house was built about 1825 and moved to Acadian Village from their homestead in Acadia in about 1870. The house is a two-story, frame structure with a steeply pitched roof and a central chimney. The front porch is supported by columns and the windows are divided by pilasters. The door is panelled and there is a small bay window on the second floor. The interior of the house is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The house is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Blacksmith Shop is a restored blacksmith shop located in the village. The shop was built in 1820 and moved to its present location in 1850. It is a one-room structure with a small shop area and a living quarters. The shop is furnished with period blacksmithing tools and equipment. The shop is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Bernier House is a restored house located in the village. The house was built in 1820 and moved to its present location in 1850. It is a one-story, frame structure with a gable roof and chimney. The house is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The house is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Broussard House is a restored house located in the village. The house was built in 1820 and moved to its present location in 1850. It is a two-story, frame structure with a gable roof and chimney. The house is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The house is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Calisteau House is a restored house located in the village. The house was built in 1820 and moved to its present location in 1850. It is a one-story, frame structure with a gable roof and chimney. The house is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The house is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The LeBlanc House is a restored house located in the village. The house was built in 1820 and moved to its present location in 1850. It is a two-story, frame structure with a gable roof and chimney. The house is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The house is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Broussard House features a restored kitchen that is open to the public. The kitchen is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The kitchen is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The LeBlanc House features a restored bedroom that is open to the public. The bedroom is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The bedroom is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Bernier House features a restored parlor that is open to the public. The parlor is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The parlor is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Blacksmith Shop features a restored blacksmithing shop that is open to the public. The shop is furnished with period blacksmithing tools and equipment. The shop is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Broussard House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The LeBlanc House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Bernier House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Blacksmith Shop features a restored blacksmithing shop that is open to the public. The shop is furnished with period blacksmithing tools and equipment. The shop is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Broussard House features a restored kitchen that is open to the public. The kitchen is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The kitchen is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The LeBlanc House features a restored bedroom that is open to the public. The bedroom is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The bedroom is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Bernier House features a restored parlor that is open to the public. The parlor is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The parlor is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Blacksmith Shop features a restored blacksmithing shop that is open to the public. The shop is furnished with period blacksmithing tools and equipment. The shop is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Broussard House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The LeBlanc House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Bernier House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Blacksmith Shop features a restored blacksmithing shop that is open to the public. The shop is furnished with period blacksmithing tools and equipment. The shop is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Broussard House features a restored kitchen that is open to the public. The kitchen is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The kitchen is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The LeBlanc House features a restored bedroom that is open to the public. The bedroom is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The bedroom is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Bernier House features a restored parlor that is open to the public. The parlor is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The parlor is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Blacksmith Shop features a restored blacksmithing shop that is open to the public. The shop is furnished with period blacksmithing tools and equipment. The shop is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Broussard House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The LeBlanc House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Bernier House features a restored garden that is open to the public. The garden is furnished with period pieces and contains a number of family heirlooms. The garden is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.

The Blacksmith Shop features a restored blacksmithing shop that is open to the public. The shop is furnished with period blacksmithing tools and equipment. The shop is open to the public and admission is $5 per person.