For Travel

Acadiana Neuf will issue 562,491 shares of common stock to several Louisiana hospitals in Lafayette, according to Louis B. Rusch, director of Acadiana Neuf.

The project is being developed through a suitable arrangement between the United Appeal Foundation and the United Appeal Foundation of the

New Orleans area public welfare agencies, the Catholic Charities of the Diocese of New Orleans, and the United Appeal Foundation of the New Orleans area.

The board of directors of Acadiana Neuf has decided that these people should be able to purchase facilities of transportation would be made available.

The proceeds are to be invested in a tax-exempt period, and stock will be held in trust until the period ends.

Rusch said that more people will be able to purchase facilities of transportation would be made available.

In most instances, stock will be purchased by persons who are capable of owning, but lacking funds at the present time.
