Acadiana Neuf
Seeks Applicant
For Director

The board of directors of Acadiana Neuf, the six-parish community action program in the War on Poverty, is seeking a person for the post of director.

Members of the board of directors of Acadiana Neuf, appointed by their respective parish juries and school boards are as follows: Acadia, M. E. Kirk and W. M. Scaborn Jr.; Iberia, Denis David, Allen Pautout; Lafayette, Donald Romero and Father Ivan Arceaux; St. Landry, Glenn Madere, Martin Roy Jr.; St. Martin, Rene Calais, O. J. Bretrager; Vermilion, Dr. Joseph C. Kite, Henry P. Liberal Jr.; University of Southwestern Louisiana, Dr. Louis Coussan, Dr. T. J. Arceaux.

According to Coussan, the post of director will pay $12,000 per year. General qualifications are as follows: master's degree (or equivalent) in education, sociology, social work or some related field; administrative ability; at least five years of experience in related field; genuine concern for the poor in Southwest Louisiana. The applicant should be a man and over 30 years of age.

(Continued from Page 1)

Acadiana Neuf
(Continued from Page 2)

recently between the ages of 30 and 45 years of age. The director's expenses will be paid by the program, Coussan said. The chairman said any person wanting to apply for the position should fill out a standard form No. 57 available at any post office and mail it to him at the university.

A total of $4,315,000 has been allocated to Louisiana under the Opportunity Act. The area parish funds have been allocated as follows: Acadia, $84,181.56; Iberia, $74,352.60; Lafayette, $162,744.80; St. Landry, $147,607.66; St. Martin, $89,096.30; and Vermilion, $39,142.90. With jurisdiction, these amounts may be exceeded by 50 per cent.

Vice president of Acadiana Neuf is Dr. Joseph Kite, Kaplan; secretary is M. E. Kirk, Opelousas, and treasurer is the Rev. Arceaux, Lafayette.

Daily Advertiser, Feb. 4, 1965, p. 1