Acadiana Neuf Seeks Family
Program Heads

Acadiana Neuf has recently received authorization from the administration of the Neighborhood Service Center, to be established in the city of Lafayette, to undertake a family unit project, which will include a housing program and a program for children, and which will be administered by a new director.

The director will be responsible for the implementation of the program, and will have the authority to hire and dismiss personnel. The program will include educational and cultural activities for children, as well as adult education and community development.

Applications are currently being accepted for this position. Interested individuals are encouraged to submit their resumes to Acadiana Neuf, Inc., at the address provided in the newspaper advertisement.
