The Citron File

1900 - Fruited as a confectionery for the Greek Orthodox Church for Greek Orthodox Children. She helped to create a new Star fruit flavor.

1952 - Founded the Five Ladies and the Five Belles in the old Lafayette General Hospital and served as president for two years.

1974 - Became a Brighton resident.

1976 - Began serving as secretary for the Lay Women for the Catholic and Christian Living for the Catholic Diocese of Lafayette and continued for 13 years.

1982 - Became a board member for Faith House. A breast cancer survivor, she was a board member for five years and president for one year.

1987 - Founded Faith House, a women's support organization that provides food and spiritual support to women in need of food and spiritual counseling, which helps them cope with the stress of breast cancer.

The Queen's Feast

• Saturday, June 13
• Eve of June, 2013
• Katmai Saloon
• Food and entertainment throughout the night.
• Tickets are available at the Saloon.
• For more information, call 207-992-0240

Marcellie Citron will be honored as Acadiana's Woman of the Year and will reign at Queen's Feast 2004.

FAITH HOUSE
CROWNS ITS QUEEN

Marcellie Citron Named Acadiana's Woman of the Year and Will Reign at Queen's Feast 2004

By MARCELLE CITRON

Marcellie Citron will be honored as Acadiana's Woman of the Year and will reign at Queen's Feast 2004.

Marcellie was the first choice for the position after a vote by the Queen's Court, which comprises the top women in Acadiana.

Marcellie will be honored at the Queen's Feast on Saturday, June 13, at the Katmai Saloon. She will be joined by a host of other women who have been nominated for the position.

The Queen's Feast is a tradition that dates back to 1900, when it was founded by the Five Ladies and the Five Belles.

Marcellie's selection is a testament to her contributions to the community, which she has made through her work with Faith House, a breast cancer support organization.

"Marcellie is a true friend and ally to our own community," said Faith House Executive Director Nancy Keeler. "She brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the position, and we are honored to have her serve in this capacity."