Acadians Name Honorary Group

Gov. John J. McKeithen and several other state officials were unanimously named honorary directors of the Council for the Development of French Culture in Louisiana recently at an international convention of the Acadian Alliance held in Quebec.

Officers from Louisiana include Chief Justice John B. Fournet of the Louisiana State Supreme Court; Dr. George Noel Cooper of New Orleans; Dr. Brendan F. Brown of New Orleans; James Domengeau of Lafayette, La., and Kathleen Marie Richardson of Baton Rouge.

During the meeting the governor and Premier Jean Jacques Bertrand of Quebec announced an informal program between Quebec and Louisiana to maintain French culture in North America, in particular, Louisiana.
