Applications are now being received by Acadiana Nuef, the 6-parish community action program of the war on poverty, for two supervisors in $9,000 salary posts. One of the supervisors will be assigned to the Iberia-Vermilion Parish area and the other to the Acadia - St. Landry Parish area.

Director Gardain Sibille was authorized by the board of directors to receive the applications. The authority was given Director Sibille at the regular monthly meeting of the board on Wednesday in the Lafayette Parish School Board Office.

Sibille stated that preference would be given to those applicants from the respective areas for the two positions. He listed the qualifications these must have who apply.

1. Must have a Bachelors Degree in education, sociology, social work, or some related field.
2. Must have administrative ability with at least five years experience in a related field.
3. Must have genuine concern for the poor in this area.
4. Must have knowledge of the education level and socio-economic condition of Southwest Louisiana.
5. The applicants should be men preferably between the ages of 35 and 45.

Director Sibille stated that any person wishing to apply for these positions should use a standard form number 87, available at any post office. A letter of particulars should be enclosed with the form, and should be mailed to him at 200 West Main Street, Lafayette.

An office has been set up temporarily in the Bertrand Building in Lafayette. The location was offered free of charge by Lafayette Mayor J. Bayhorne Bertrand.

At the board meeting the representatives members of each parish made reports on the organization and progress of their respective advisory committees. Most of the groups have had organizational meetings and are in the process of submitting proposals for consideration in their areas.

The two representatives from Iberia Parish were Allen Paquet and Dennis David.
