Archives Unit Seeks Charter

James Picayune

Negro History Depository Development Is Aim

An organization to be known as “Archives of Negro History” has filed for a charter with the Secretary of State Wade O. Martin, and will be domiciled here at 1821 Orleans.

Attorney A. P. Tureaud and Joseph Logsdon, president and secretary respectively, are the organization’s registered agents.

According to Tureaud the organization is dedicated to the development of a depository for Negro history in New Orleans, and will be a nonprofit group.

The purposes of ANH are the acquisition and purchasing of documents and historical material; conducting oral histories of Negro leaders; encouragement of records preservation by individuals and organizations; in addition to Tureaud and Logsdon are Marcus Neustadter Jr., first vice-president; Charles B. Rousseve, second vice-president; Marcus B. Christian, Raphael Cassimere Jr., Arthur J. Chapital Sr., Ernest N. Morial, George Longe, Nils R. Douglas, Clarence L. Barney, William H. Parker, I. M. Augustine Jr., Charles de Lay, John E. Rousseau Jr., and C. C. Dejoie Jr.