ACADIANA IN MINIATURE — The Acadian Elementary School Parent Teacher Club will sponsor an Acadian Auction at the school tomorrow to raise funds for club projects at the school. From left, Mrs. George Landry, co-chairman; Mrs. Neil Troupe, chairman; Mrs. Alcide Allemand and Mrs. Sheldon Helloway wear the costumes members of the committee will wear and admire the Cajun playhouse built by Mr. and Mrs. Troupe that will be among the items offered for sale. The auction will begin at 6 o’clock. (Photo by Jarvis Beckett)

Acadian Auction Set As PTC School Benefit

Acadian Elementary School will be the setting tomorrow for a benefit being sponsored by the Parent Teacher Club. With the theme, “Acadiana in Miniature,” festivities will begin with a cake walk at 4 o’clock and continue later with an Acadian auction.

Mrs. Neil Troupe, chairman for the event, is assisted by Mrs. George Landry as co-chairman. In charge of the cake walk will be Mrs. Lloyd Vincent, and the Grab Bag. The Wishing Well is being prepared by Mrs. F.E. Charlesville and Mrs. Alcide Allemand. The committee in charge of refreshments includes Mrs. Bill Landry and Mrs. Sheldon Helloway.

Henry Landry, principal of the school, and the auctioneer, James Beckett, are scheduled to arrive at the school by 1:30 p.m. and begin at 2:30 p.m.