Fall Begins to Fade

for a late-in-the-year tour, Up being m this fertile forest of land. scenic picture to make way for The tourist with a bent for temperatures, this part of Louisi-

As you Lafourche country and its en-dered as "one of the lash places who look to Louisiana wili be. awed to some extent at discover the joys of its wonder-winter there are those from othsome is Lake Verret in Assump-

The river offers a continuing ofwater Mississippi River water, is an conversation publication.

Moving down into Assumption and that of Iberville appear to attract heavy duty vessels to such as Corne, Grande, Plaquem-

There are many types oftrees in this area, and one of

SIGH OF TREES

it under these controlled condi-

so eagerly sought as an edible delight.

EDIBLE DELIGHT

uncommon, type adaptable to the east of the Mississippi respect, hardwood type adaptable to the east of the Mississippi

To go down into Assumption and Lafourche Parish and Lafourche Parish will indeed be delighted with the forest samples that greet him on the roads leading into the interior areas.

WILDLIFE ABOUND

There are many types oftrees and many uses pass by. It is said that about 4 million

DONOSANTONITE 14.

DONOSANTONITE 14.

ANCES IN THE YEAR LOOK TAKEN

at Bayou Lafourche Country

Late-in-the-Year Look Taken

DOWN THE BAYOU TIMES

12-4 sec. 7 x 5

Times Picayune

2 p.m. 3/5

Times Picayune