BELLE GROVE PLANTATION in Iberville Parish is the subject of this painting by Robert William Addison, who has been commissioned to paint a series on historic houses along the lower Mississippi River. Built in 1857, Belle Grove has 75 rooms. It is considered by many to be the most magnificent mansion built in Louisiana in pre-Civil War days. For information on the painting and the Southern Heritage art series, contact C. M. Scales, Riperside Galleries, 3315 Line Ave., Shreveport, La., 71104.