NEW IBERIA — Sister Yolanda Plante from New Hampshire will be in Iberia Parish Nov. 13-15 to serve as a consultant for an ESEA Title VII French Bilingual Program workshop.

Sister Plante is a French curriculum consultant for the Service de Liaison, New Hampshire, and has been serving as a special consultant to the French Title VII projects in Louisiana for the past two years.

She has also been holding workshops in Louisiana and New England for French project staffs. The workshops concentrate on staff training in methods and materials adapted to teach French language arts on the primary level.

Sister Plante is the author of "Une Application Pedagogique de la Linguistique Structurale."

During her three days in Iberia Parish, she will conduct a workshop for a group of teachers at the Iberia Parish Educational Center. She will also give demonstration lessons at Loreauville and Coteau elementary schools.
