Breaux Bridge Prepares For 1964 Crawfish Festival

Cajun Crustacean Will Be Honored

By ZIM LANCODON

Advertiser Area Staff

BREAUX BRIDGE - Carl Simon, chairman of the 1964 Breaux Bridge Crawfish Festival, has several old friends visiting the area this week, including the general in chief of the Civil War Centennial Committee, the mayor of Breaux Bridge, and the local historian. Among the visitors are Mrs. Ernest Yongue, who is in charge of the Crawfish Queen Coronation Ball, and Mr. E. F. Hervey, who is in charge of the Civil War Centennial Committee.

The marker presentation by Dr. L. F. Hervey, a local member of the Civil War Centennial Committee, will be held today at 11 a.m. in the city park. The marker will be dedicated to the memory of General Louis Hebert, who was a member of the Louisiana State Senate and served in the Union Army during the Civil War.

In Preparation for the 1964 Festival

The Crawfish Queen Parade will feature over 30 floats and units, including the Civil War Centennial Committee, the Crawfish Queen, and the Crawfish Race. The parade will start at 1 p.m. and will end at the Breaux Bridge Civic Center.

Miss Creel's

At work on a model of the famous hotel Creel's, which will be a feature of the parade. The model will be on display at the Creel's Hotel.

BEARDS AND BISQUE

Carl Simon, chairman of the 1964 Breaux Bridge Crawfish Festival, holds the key ingredients of the festival. The festival will be held this weekend, with events beginning on Saturday morning.

TO BE MARKED

The grave of General Louis Hebert, C.S.A., who was a member of the Louisiana State Senate and served in the Union Army during the Civil War, will be marked by the Civil War Centennial Committee. The marker will be dedicated to the memory of General Louis Hebert.

Crawfish Festival Parade

The parade will start at 1 p.m. and will end at the Breaux Bridge Civic Center. The parade will feature over 30 floats and units, including the Civil War Centennial Committee, the Crawfish Queen, and the Crawfish Race.

Miss Creel's

At work on a model of the famous hotel Creel's, which will be a feature of the parade. The model will be on display at the Creel's Hotel.

ADVERTISER AREA REPORTER

Mrs. Ernest Yongue, who is in charge of the Crawfish Queen Coronation Ball, and Mr. E. F. Hervey, who is in charge of the Civil War Centennial Committee, will be at the marker presentation today at 11 a.m. in the city park. The marker will be dedicated to the memory of General Louis Hebert, who was a member of the Louisiana State Senate and served in the Union Army during the Civil War.

In Preparation for the 1964 Festival

The Crawfish Queen Parade will feature over 30 floats and units, including the Civil War Centennial Committee, the Crawfish Queen, and the Crawfish Race. The parade will start at 1 p.m. and will end at the Breaux Bridge Civic Center.

Miss Creel's

At work on a model of the famous hotel Creel's, which will be a feature of the parade. The model will be on display at the Creel's Hotel.

TO BE MARKED

The grave of General Louis Hebert, C.S.A., who was a member of the Louisiana State Senate and served in the Union Army during the Civil War, will be marked by the Civil War Centennial Committee. The marker will be dedicated to the memory of General Louis Hebert.