Your Convention City With Cajun Mystique

Lafayette... There’s no place on earth quite like it. The food, the flavor, the good times, the Heart of Acadiana.
And there’s no place quite like it for a convention, either.
Lafayette is the city to host your convention or corporate meeting. Convention-goers, as well as all our visitors, are treated royally and warmly when they come here, so the fond memories stay with them.
Next time your group or organization is planning a convention or corporate meeting, invite them to Lafayette, a warm, friendly, place to gather. We’ll be glad to help get them here and to accommodate them once they arrive. Just give us a call.
