SHOW RULES

1. All blooms entered will become the property of the Men’s Camellia Club and will be destroyed by fire at the conclusion of the show. No blooms will be permitted to be taken from the building.

2. Entries will be received at the Fair Grounds entrance of the Exhibit Building from 8:30 a.m. until 12 noon Saturday, February 27. Only workers will be allowed in the exhibit hall during receiving.

3. All containers must remain in place until the close of the show, 6:00 p.m. Sunday, February 28. Place your name on bottom of container.

4. There is no limit as to the number of entries an exhibitor may make.

5. Containers for specimen blooms ONLY will be furnished.

6. The Men’s Camellia Club will not be responsible for containers or plant materials.

7. Three places will be awarded in each class.

8. In the event there are not enough entries (minimum of 3) of any one variety to constitute a class, specimens will not be judged for place but will be eligible to receive an Honorable Mention award on the basis of individual merit and also will be eligible for outstanding blossom of the show.

9. Exhibitors entering blooms MUST have had plant from which blossom is taken in their yard at least one month prior to show.

10. Commercial and nursery exhibitors may display blooms, plants and exhibits but are only eligible in the commercial class. No selling of plants permitted.

11. The show chairman, along with the classification committee, reserves the right to disqualify entries if rules are not followed and to re-classify blooms if named or entered incorrectly.

12. Blooms grown under glass must be so labeled and entered under that class.

13. All entries shall have only one bloom to a stem, with one or more leaves attached.

14. The decision of the judges will be final.

Entries may be mailed or expressed to:
MEN’S CAMELLIA CLUB, State Exhibit Bldg.,
3015 Greenwood Road, Shreveport, La.
