DISCOVER WEST BATON ROUGE PARISH

The smallest parish in Louisiana, West Baton Rouge is one of the original parishes formed by the territorial legislature in 1807. The flags of France, Spain, the United States and the Confederacy have flown over the area. The late 1800's brought the Acadian refugees. Predominantly French, they still dwell in quiet rural communities such as Erwinville, Brusly, Addis and Port Allen.

For detailed information, maps and brochures on the parish, the West Baton Rouge Museum and the Port of Baton Rouge—fourth largest in the United States—stop by the Baton Rouge Area Visitor Information Centre, housed in an Acadian style building located at the I-10 and Hwy. 415 interchange in Port Allen (Hours: 9:00 A.M.-5:00 P.M., daily).
