Broussards re-enact historic agreement

By LESLIE MILLER

CAJUNVILLE — It was a warm Sunday for the re-enactment of a historic accord between the Native Americans and the French. The event marked the anniversary of the signing of the historic treaty that established the boundary between the two cultures. The re-enactment included traditional music, dancing, and storytelling to honor the heritage of both communities.

Sunday May 30

Parish Fair Sponsored by
96.5 PLANET RADIO

FREE ATTRACTIONS:

- Cajun Fireworks Display
- Country Music Concert
- Children's Rodeo

Parish Fair "99

Sponsored by Lafayette Parish Medical Society & KATC TV3

Saturday, May 30

11:00am - 10:00pm

FREE RIDE THE FERRIS WHEEL FOR CHARITY: 12:00noon - 6:00pm

Ferris Wheel Demonstrations

Children's Train Rides

Admission: Adult: $3.00

SONIC BURLINGTON

GRANDSTAND:

Sponsored by 96.5 PLANET RADIO

Starts at 6:00pm

SHOW THE MONKEY

Spider Fish

Cajun Moon

Landing Band

100.3 PLANET RADIO

The re-enactment of the historic event was a way to honor the legacy of the area's past and to celebrate the continuing heritage of the Cajun and French cultures.