BROWN III
President and CEO of Bruce Foods

Business Person of the Year

J.S. "S" BROWN III

Bruce and Bruce Foods have a storied history dating back to 1924. The company, founded by John Shorter Brown, was originally a small grocery store in Baton Rouge. Over the years, the company has grown into a national brand, with new "Heart Healthy" shelf and private label products.

In 1967, the company acquired a major position in the food industry, and in 1975, it acquired the Bruce Foods Corporation of New Orleans. The company then expanded into the production of a variety of products, including soups, sauces, and seasonings.

Today, Bruce Foods is a leading manufacturer of food products, with a growing presence in the food industry. The company has also expanded its reach into international markets, with a strong focus on innovation and quality.

The company's commitment to excellence is evident in its products, which are known for their high quality and innovative ingredients. Bruce Foods is a leader in the food industry, and its success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its employees.

Bruce Foods is committed to giving back to the community and has a strong presence in the local community. The company supports a variety of community initiatives, including education, health, and social programs.

Under the leadership of J.S. "S" Brown III, Bruce Foods continues to grow and thrive, and its success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its employees, led by the visionary leadership of its founder.

Bruce Foods' success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its employees, led by the visionary leadership of its founder. Under the leadership of J.S. "S" Brown III, Bruce Foods continues to grow and thrive, and its success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its employees.