French language study heightened in Quebec

CODOFIL group returns

CODOFIL STUDENTS ARRIVE FROM QUEBEC FLIGHT

recognized among students as returning from Quebec this week was Miss Isabelle Chasanoff.

The group of sixty-six students, sponsored by the Committee on Development of French in Louisiana, arrived here en masse after spending four months in Quebec.

The students, who are expected to spend a year in foreign study in the Frenchspeaking world, were met at the airport by the Committee on Development of French in Louisiana.

The students are expected to spend a year in foreign study in the French-speaking world.