CAMP POLK WILL RECEIVE PAINTING

Portrait of Lieut. Gen. Leonidas Polk To Be Presented Today

The portrait, the work of Ella Wood, New Orleans artist, is being presented by the Pickett chapter No. 1539 of Leesville. It will hang in the Camp Polk officers' mess.

Miss Emily H. Huger, art instructor in the Southwestern Louisiana Institute at Lafayette, has been invited to make the presentation which will take place in the officers' mess at 10:30 a.m.

The portrait is of the "Fighting Bishop," who died in action leading his Confederate army, shows him in civilian dress and was painted especially for the Pickett chapter and Camp Polk.

Miss Allie Johnson, retiring president of the Pickett chapter, will head the group of Confederate Daughters making the presentation. Through her leadership the work of obtaining the portrait has been done.

A band concert from 10:10 until 10:30 o'clock under the direction of Warrant Officer Frank A. Reed will precede the presentation ceremony.

Following the presentation, refreshments will be served.

Beaumont Enterprise
May 23, 1947