The Lafayette Squirrel
Apr. 2, 1931

LAFAYETTE AND SOUTHWEST LOUISIANA CITIES PREPARE FOR CANADIAN DELEGATION

Group on Tour of State to Arrive Here on Friday, April 17
Program Here to Include Banquet

Several Cities Have Already Announced Elaborate Programs

Cities in southwest Louisiana, including Lafayette, are making plans to honor the Canadian delegation which will arrive here in April for a visit of several days. The delegation is under the leadership of Rt. Rev. Monsignor John J. Leger, who will visit all cities in the state during his visit, April 17.

The delegation will arrive here on Friday, April 17, and the visit will last until early in May. The program is in keeping with the hospitality of the city, and many events are planned for the occasion.

Banquet

A banquet is being planned by the Lafayette Jaycees, the Lafayette Kiwanis Club, and the Lafayette Chapter of the Louisiana Jaycees. The banquet will be held on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens

St. Martin Parish

In St. Martin Parish, the visit will coincide with the annual St. Martin's Day celebration. The city of Opelousas will welcome the delegation with a special banquet and tour of the city. The delegation will also visit other cities in the parish, including Breaux Bridge and Youngsville.

New Orleans

The Louisiana Jaycees have announced that a large banquet will be held in New Orleans to honor the delegation. The event will be held on April 17 at a hotel in New Orleans.

The Lafayette Jaycees will sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The Lafayette Kiwanis Club will also sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

Other Cities

The visit will coincide with the annual St. Martin's Day celebration. The city of Opelousas will welcome the delegation with a special banquet and tour of the city. The delegation will also visit other cities in the parish, including Breaux Bridge and Youngsville.

The Louisiana Jaycees have announced that a large banquet will be held in New Orleans to honor the delegation. The event will be held on April 17 at a hotel in New Orleans.

The Lafayette Jaycees will sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The Lafayette Kiwanis Club will also sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The visit will coincide with the annual St. Martin's Day celebration. The city of Opelousas will welcome the delegation with a special banquet and tour of the city. The delegation will also visit other cities in the parish, including Breaux Bridge and Youngsville.

The Louisiana Jaycees have announced that a large banquet will be held in New Orleans to honor the delegation. The event will be held on April 17 at a hotel in New Orleans.

The Lafayette Jaycees will sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The Lafayette Kiwanis Club will also sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The visit will coincide with the annual St. Martin's Day celebration. The city of Opelousas will welcome the delegation with a special banquet and tour of the city. The delegation will also visit other cities in the parish, including Breaux Bridge and Youngsville.

The Louisiana Jaycees have announced that a large banquet will be held in New Orleans to honor the delegation. The event will be held on April 17 at a hotel in New Orleans.

The Lafayette Jaycees will sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The Lafayette Kiwanis Club will also sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The visit will coincide with the annual St. Martin's Day celebration. The city of Opelousas will welcome the delegation with a special banquet and tour of the city. The delegation will also visit other cities in the parish, including Breaux Bridge and Youngsville.

The Louisiana Jaycees have announced that a large banquet will be held in New Orleans to honor the delegation. The event will be held on April 17 at a hotel in New Orleans.

The Lafayette Jaycees will sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The Lafayette Kiwanis Club will also sponsor a special banquet on April 17 at a hotel in Lafayette. The event will be attended by many of the city's prominent citizens.

The visit will coincide with the annual St. Martin's Day celebration. The city of Opelousas will welcome the delegation with a special banquet and tour of the city. The delegation will also visit other cities in the parish, including Breaux Bridge and Youngsville.