CATFISH TOWN set for 4th

By Advocate staff writers

Ost in the courthouse, sheriffs and posse figures were marked to be tucked out of sight. In the strong area, chairs still wrapped in plastic were lined up waiting for tables to arrive. A painter on aluminum skids started the building of several buildings and the cleaning of the white house, out-of-the-way places.

Piles of dirt, dust and cement were growing on the sidewalks of Catfish Town last Tuesday afternoon as entrepreneurs were busy arranging places next to town for the parade. The parade is expected to be held on the riverfront Wednesday to take part in the Fourth of July celebration.

Catfish Town manager general Howard Long and the city's construction crew would work through the night to complete the $2.2 million renovation project in time for the outdoor concert at 8 p.m.

---

CATFISH TOWN (Continued from 1A)

Although Catfish Town is expected to draw crowds throughout the day, the "new festival market" is not the only activity planned for July 4.

At 11 a.m., the Jaycees will begin a large variety of food and drink, including jambalaya, beast, barbecue, beer, mixed drinks and coolers. Among the highlights will be the beer and wine every 21 and over can enjoy, and in addition, the Jaycees are planning a gigantic fireworks display sponsored by HESS-WAY at 8 p.m.

At 11 a.m., the Catfish Town opening ceremony begins at 10 a.m. and will include many different state and local officials. Among the highlights of the opening ceremonies will be opening ceremonies on Oklands, S.C., Department of Commerce Undersecretary for Travel, Tourism, and Outdoor Recreation and U.S. Senators Russell B. Long and J. Bennett Johnston.

Several bands will be playing on the stage, including" Steve Stitt & Friends." The stage will be open to the public for a nominal fee.

The parade will be held in the city of Catfish Town, past many groups, past cotton trees and cotton fields.

---

The city of Catfish Town has a history of great events, including the parade, which has been a tradition for years. The city is known for its rich history and is home to the famous Catfish, a dish that is enjoyed by many.

---

Residents A. D. Palmer, Dianne Aletto and Don Raglande created a patriotic float for Kenilworth's 12th annual July Fourth parade.

---

Although Catfish Town is expected to draw crowds throughout the day, the "new festival market" is not the only activity planned for July 4.

At 11 a.m., the Jaycees will begin a large variety of food and drink, including jambalaya, beast, barbecue, beer, mixed drinks and coolers. Among the highlights will be the beer and wine every 21 and over can enjoy, and in addition, the Jaycees are planning a gigantic fireworks display sponsored by HESS-WAY at 8 p.m.

At 11 a.m., the Catfish Town opening ceremony begins at 10 a.m. and will include many different state and local officials. Among the highlights of the opening ceremonies will be opening ceremonies on Oklands, S.C., Department of Commerce Undersecretary for Travel, Tourism, and Outdoor Recreation and U.S. Senators Russell B. Long and J. Bennett Johnston.

Several bands will be playing on the stage, including" Steve Stitt & Friends." The stage will be open to the public for a nominal fee.

The parade will be held in the city of Catfish Town, past many groups, past cotton trees and cotton fields.

---

The city of Catfish Town has a history of great events, including the parade, which has been a tradition for years. The city is known for its rich history and is home to the famous Catfish, a dish that is enjoyed by many.

---

Although Catfish Town is expected to draw crowds throughout the day, the "new festival market" is not the only activity planned for July 4.

At 11 a.m., the Jaycees will begin a large variety of food and drink, including jambalaya, beast, barbecue, beer, mixed drinks and coolers. Among the highlights will be the beer and wine every 21 and over can enjoy, and in addition, the Jaycees are planning a gigantic fireworks display sponsored by HESS-WAY at 8 p.m.

At 11 a.m., the Catfish Town opening ceremony begins at 10 a.m. and will include many different state and local officials. Among the highlights of the opening ceremonies will be opening ceremonies on Oklands, S.C., Department of Commerce Undersecretary for Travel, Tourism, and Outdoor Recreation and U.S. Senators Russell B. Long and J. Bennett Johnston.

Several bands will be playing on the stage, including" Steve Stitt & Friends." The stage will be open to the public for a nominal fee.

The parade will be held in the city of Catfish Town, past many groups, past cotton trees and cotton fields.

---

The city of Catfish Town has a history of great events, including the parade, which has been a tradition for years. The city is known for its rich history and is home to the famous Catfish, a dish that is enjoyed by many.

---

Residents A. D. Palmer, Dianne Aletto and Don Raglande created a patriotic float for Kenilworth's 12th annual July Fourth parade.

---

Residents A. D. Palmer, Dianne Aletto and Don Raglande created a patriotic float for Kenilworth's 12th annual July Fourth parade.

---

Residents A. D. Palmer, Dianne Aletto and Don Raglande created a patriotic float for Kenilworth's 12th annual July Fourth parade.

---

Residents A. D. Palmer, Dianne Aletto and Don Raglande created a patriotic float for Kenilworth's 12th annual July Fourth parade.

---

Residents A. D. Palmer, Dianne Aletto and Don Raglande created a patriotic float for Kenilworth's 12th annual July Fourth parade.

---

Residents A. D. Palmer, Dianne Aletto and Don Raglande created a patriotic float for Kenilworth's 12th annual July Fourth parade.