Faculty assignments for the 1967-68 year at Cathedral-Carmel High School have been announced by Brother A. Nicholas Grahmann, F.S.C., principal.

This will he the first year of operation under the recent consolidation of Cathedral and Mount Carmel High Schools.

The faculty includes Christian Brothers, Sisters of Mount Carmel and lay men and women teachers. Teachers' meeting is Thursday, Aug. 31, and student orientation will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Friday, Sept. 1. Classes begin Tuesday, Sept. 5.

Assistant principal will be Sister M. Immaculata, O. Carm.

The high school faculty will include Sister M. Aline, B.S., English; Brother Faber Arceneaux, M.A., math and science; Patrick Arceneaux, B.S., history and physical education; Steve A. Brackin, M.A., guidance counselor; Gale Breaux, M.A., math and physical education.

Mrs. E. E. Caradine, B.A., English and speech; Mrs. Louis Hott, B.S.; biology; Sister M. Hyacinth, B.S., librarian; Mrs. Robert Jones, M.A., chemistry and physical science; Mrs. Jeanne J. Kelley, B.A., vocal music; Sister Laura Marie, B.S., French and Religion.

Sister Lena Marie, B.S., business education and religion; Brother Cyril Ory, M.A., English and religion; Brother Giles Pennington, B.A., religion and history; Brother Bernard Reed, M.A., French and religion; Sister Rose Aimee, B.A., clinics; Billy Gene Talbot, B.S., social studies and physical education; Brother John Young, M.A., English and religion.

Harry St. Pierre, B.A., band director; Miss Lee Veiloz, B.S.; Brother Bryan Kenner, B.S., eighth grade; Mrs. Leon Napoli, B.A.; Henry J. Byler, B.A.; Brother Walter Williams, B.A.; seventh grade; Mrs. W. A. Odom, Mrs. Leslie Waguespack, Sister M. Gwen, sixth grade.