Discussing plans for the opening of Cathedral-Carmel High School in the fall are, from left, Dr. Leonard Rolfes, Jimmy Dupuis, president of the temporary student council; Sister M. Immaculata Garcia, president of the school board; and Brother A. Nicholas Gramann, F.S.C., principal.

Cathedral-Carmel School Appointments Announced

Lafayette - Appointment of Sister Immaculata Garcia, O.Carm., as assistant principal, and Sister Catherine Murphy, O.Carm., as elementary principal of Cathedral-Carmel school in Lafayette was announced this week by Brother A. Nicholas Gramann, F.S.C., principal.

Sister Immaculata, who has been principal of Mount Carmel, Abbeville, is also a native of New Orleans.

The sisters' appointments were received from Mother M. Dolores Delahoussaye, O.Carm., superior general of the Sisters of Mount Carmel.

Most of the school faculty is complete, Brother Nicholas advised. A band instructor is still being sought, he said.

Registration has reached a total of 1,321 students including kindergarten and grades three and four, the principal reported.

Brother Nicholas

Brother Nicholas, whose assignment as principal was confirmed earlier in the spring, is a native of Hallettsville, Tex. He has been principal at Cathedral High School, Lafayette, since January 1963. Prior to this he was principal of Landry High School, Lake Charles, from 1959-1963. He was on the Cathedral faculty before that, and has also taught at Hanson, Franklin, and DeLaSalle novitiate in Lafayette, and West Las Vegas (New Mex.) high school.
He has a B.A. degree from the College of Santa Fe, New Mex., and received his master's degree in speech from LSU. He has done graduate work in education at USL and McNeese, and summer work at the University of Sorbonne, Paris. He attended a workshop for administrators in the summer of 1963 at the College of Santa Fe, and this summer will be attending a workshop for religious superiors at Plano, Illinois.

Sister Immaculata, who will be assistant principal, has been principal of Mount Carmel Academy, Thibodaux, and Mount Carmel, Abbeville, has taught also at Mount Carmel, New Iberia. She is a former bursar general of the Mount Carmel Sisters and taught in the junior college department of the Mount Carmel novitiate, New Orleans.

She received her B.A. degree in mathematics from Loyola University, New Orleans, and her M.S. in math from Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. She has attended two summer institutes in math at Tulane, taught at the Nicholls State College, Thibodaux, in the summer of 1966. She has attended in-service institutes at LSU-New Orleans.

Sister Catherine, new principal of Cathedral-Carmel elementary was principal and superior at Mount Carmel, Abbeville from 1964-1967. Other assignments include principal at St. James Major, New Orleans, and St. Joseph the Worker, Marrero; assistant principal at Mount Carmel, New Orleans; on the faculty of Mount Carmel, Thibodaux, and Mount Carmel, Lafayette.

She received her bachelor's degree from Loyola, New Orleans, and her master's in education from St. Louis University. She is certified in administration, supervision, guidance, social studies and Latin.