CHURCH POINT, May 28 (Spd)—The 25th anniversary of Msgr. C. A. Bienvenu as pastor of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Parish was observed Sunday with a Solemn Mass at 4 p.m.

The Mass was followed by a social at the Community Center during which parishioners and friends extended their congratulations.

Jubilee Program
A civic jubilee program was presented at 7:30 p.m. in the parish hall. City officials and representatives of church organizations took part and selections were presented by the school children.

Monsignor Bienvenu was celebrant of the Mass, assisted by Father Alfed Garde, pastor of St. Leo's Parish in Lafayette, deacon; Father Michael L. Butkowski, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Parish in Cecilia, subdeacon, and Father Rosarie Veilleux, of Our Lady of Sacred Heart Church assistant pastor, as master of ceremonies.

The sermon was delivered by Father W. J. Labbe, pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Cecilia, and who was a former assistant pastor in Church Point.

Choir Sings Mass
The Knights of Columbus Men’s Choir in conjunction with the parish choir sang the Mass under the direction of Mrs. Irene Daigle, organist. Father George H. Simon, assistant pastor, assisted.

Presiding in the sanctuary was Bishop Maurice Schexnayder and the auxiliary bishop, Robert E. Tracy, both of Lafayette.

Monsignor Bienvenu, before going to Church Point, was the assistant pastor of St. Michael's Church in Crowley and prior to that time was an Army chaplain with headquarters in New Orleans.
