TRADFAIR — The strange looking on the side of this fine new metal sign plateabin the trend that Bogalusaian-lender carried around the world in the early days of the great mining center that produced the world's largest output of gold. At the height of its operations, Great Southern Lumber Co. produced a million board feet of lumber a day in Bogalusa.

MAGIC CITY

By CLIFF ADAMS

Bogalusa — Bumming around town and seeing a lot of the city — the Magic City — was a popular amusement for many of the visitors to the gold rush. The city was a great place to spend a weekend, and many of the visitors would return to the city after a weekend to see how the mining town had changed. The Magic City was a place where people could see the world's largest output of gold and the city was a popular destination for visitors from around the world.
