Facility is located North of Tangipahoa

GRAVE MARKERS

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS' HOME

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CEREMONIES

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

Confederate Museum

The Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first. The museum which will be dedicated Sunday was constructed from funds obtained from the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The museum, designed by General Robert E. Lee, will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.

Confederate Museum

The Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first. The museum which will be dedicated Sunday was constructed from funds obtained from the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The museum, designed by General Robert E. Lee, will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.

Confederate Museum Dedication Set Sunday

Tangipahoa, La. - The Camp Moore Confederate Museum will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.

Ceremonies Planned Sunday at Confederate Museum

Facility is located North of Tangipahoa

GRAVE MARKERS

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS' HOME

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CEREMONIES

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

Confederate Museum

The Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first. The museum which will be dedicated Sunday was constructed from funds obtained from the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The museum, designed by General Robert E. Lee, will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.

Confederate Museum Dedication Set Sunday

Tangipahoa, La. - The Camp Moore Confederate Museum will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.

Ceremonies Planned Sunday at Confederate Museum

Facility is located North of Tangipahoa

GRAVE MARKERS

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS' HOME

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CEREMONIES

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

Confederate Museum

The Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first. The museum which will be dedicated Sunday was constructed from funds obtained from the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The museum, designed by General Robert E. Lee, will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.

Confederate Museum Dedication Set Sunday

Tangipahoa, La. - The Camp Moore Confederate Museum will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.

Ceremonies Planned Sunday at Confederate Museum

Facility is located North of Tangipahoa

GRAVE MARKERS

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS' HOME

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

CEREMONIES

The 150 neat rows of grave markers are symbolic of the lives of six hundred soldiers who lost their lives there. Most of the deaths were caused during an epidemic of measles. The camp was large enough to accommodate as many as 4,000 troops at a time.

Confederate Museum

The Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first Confederate Museum was erected in 1929 and the first. The museum which will be dedicated Sunday was constructed from funds obtained from the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The museum, designed by General Robert E. Lee, will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m. Facility will be dedicated Sunday at 2 p.m.