COLOBM HOUSE
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Mrs. Victor A. LeBlanc reports, “We have a long way to go yet in reaching our goal — completely restoring and furnishing Colobm House, built in 1835 by Christopher Colobm in Convent.

“But starting Sunday, Oct. 12, the house and office (C. Christophe Colobm was a dentist) will be open from 10 to 5, admission price 50 cents, proceeds going into further restoration and furnishing. We have already opened weekdays from 9 to 2. The trip to Convent from New Orleans is most enjoyable, up the river road on the East Bank of the Mississippi. The beautiful grotto in St. Michael’s Church, erected by Christophe Colobm about three miles before Colobm House, is a sight not to be passed.”
