Constitution Group Will Meet

Civic Organizations Plan Convention Policy

The Council for a New State Constitution will meet in the City Council chamber at City Hall Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the policy of the council concerning issues of the Constitutional Convention.

At the meeting, testimony will be prepared to give before the Composite Committee of CC-'73 later in the week, according to Errol Laborde, chairman of the CNSC.

Members of the CNSC include: the League of Women Voters of New Orleans, New Orleans Coalition, Orleans Audubon Society, Harrington Civic and Improvement Association, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the American Civil Liberties Union, Citizens for Democratic Action, Black Women's Caucus, Goals to Grow, New Orleans Federation of Churches, and the New Orleans Jaycees.

Also, the Council for Jewish Women, the Louisiana Chapter of the National Organization of Women, the National Association of Social Workers, the LSUNO Young Democrats, the Louisiana Chaplains Association, the Alliance for Good Government, Common Cause, Hollygrove Improvement Association, International Women's Organization and the Human Relations Commission.

And, the Human Relations Committee of the New Orleans, the Coliseum Square Association, the American Association of University Women, New Orleans branch; the League of Women Voters of Jefferson Parish, and the Lakeview Improvement Association.