Crawfish Producers Set Meeting at USL Theater

Dr. Clyde Rougeou Slated to Give Address

(Special to The Times-Picayune)

LAFAYETTE, La. — Dr. Claude L. Rougeou, president of University of Southwestern Louisiana, will address the Crawfish Producers’ meeting at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the USL Union Theater here.

The meeting, under the sponsorship of the Louisiana Crawfish Farmers Association, the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service and USL, will begin with registration at 9 a.m.

Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr. of Baton Rouge will give the opening remarks, and the keynote address will be delivered by Dave L. Pearce of Baton Rouge, commissioner of agriculture.

John E. Thibodaux of Napoleonville, president of the association, will give the president’s address. Audrey Heumann of Breaux Bridge, will discuss “The Future of Crawfish Farming.”

RESEARCH IS TOPIC

Dr. Jerome Shireman, USL assistant professor, will speak on “Crawfish Research,” as will Dr. James Avault, LSU associate professor.

Sam Broussard of New Iberia, vice-president of the association, will preside at the afternoon session, which gets under way at 1:15 p.m. with a discussion by Stanford B. Gauthier of Breaux Bridge of the Soil Conservation Service on “Pond Selection and Construction.”