Breaux Bridge - A 17-year-old Breaux Bridge High junior was named 1983-84 Crawfish Queen at the annual pageant and coronation ball Saturday night at Poche’s Country Club.

The new queen is Lisa Arceneaux, a statuesque (5’9”) brunette, who was selected from a field of eight contestants. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Pat Arceneaux. She is a cheerleader and member of the Beta Club and FBLA at BBHS.

Selected as first maid was Rhonda Ketelers, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ketelers and a senior at Breaux Bridge High. Beth Delaune, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Delaune of Parks, was named second maid. She is also a senior at Breaux Bridge High School.

The new queen received her crown from the outgoing Crawfish Queen, Angela Beazley.

Other contestants in the 1983 pageant were Angela Angelle, Charlotte Guidry, Adria Theriot, Stacey LaJaunie and Karen Cormier.

Jr. Queen
Also presented during the pageant was Ali Germain Landry, who began her reign as the 1983 Jr. Crawfish Queen, succeeding Michelle Lynette Blanchard. The new junior queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Landry.

Judges for the queen’s contest were Curlene Adams of Gueydan, Mark Solomon of Baton Rouge, and Mike Wilds of Lafayette.
