AND THEY'RE OFF! — Those good-tasting crustaceans hold the interests of more than just those at the dinner table. A favorite feature of the bi-annual Crawfish Festival in Breaux Bridge is the crawfish race, where hand-chosen "racers" are placed in the middle of several concentric circles and urged to crawl outward. The winner is whichever makes his way to the farthest ring. (Staff Photo by Ross Heard)

The Sunday Advertiser May 2, 1982