Crowley Rice Museum Head Is W. Millet
August 27, 1968 p. 2 col. 8

CROWLEY — Warren Millet has been elected president of the Rice Museum of Crowley for the coming year. The selection of Millet was made by the board of directors of the Crowley Chamber of Commerce.

Named to serve with Millet were Phil Cassery as vice president and Bill Broadhurst as secretary-treasurer. The new officers will take office on Nov. 1.

Members of the board are Bonnie Bacon, Early Boulet, Clyde LeBlanc, Webb Guilbeaux, Joe Prejean, Irvin Stansbury, Mrs. Frances Wright, Jack Lyons, Hilda Lyons, Mary Jo Smith, Earl Sonnier, Alphonse Habetz, and George Webb.

The board also set Oct. 11, first day of the International Rice Festival as the time when the Rice Museum will be officially dedicated. A tentative time of 10:30 a.m. has been given.