CYPRESS LAKE — Once a pig enclosure, then an open-air theater, Cypress Grove became Cypress Lake in the early 1940s when the area was flooded to protect the trees and to provide a war-time reservoir. The cultivation of irises and other Louisiana flora has made the lake the prettiest spot on campus.